Poster Format

Title:

The title submitted to the Conference organising committee should be prominent. The organisers should be notified immediately of any change to a poster title.

Additional Guidelines:

Your presentation should contain succinct headings that organize and logically display the information.

Prepare a short, legible introduction and a summary of conclusions. Graphics should be explicit and brief.

Poster presentations give you an opportunity to acquaint conference participants with the fundamentals of your work or project quickly and easily. Posters should be designed to

- catch the viewer's attention,
- quickly acquaint the viewer with the basics of your subject, and
- make the viewer want to learn more.

Illustrations must be readable from distances of at least 1 metre. Charts, drawings, and illustrations should be similar to those you would use in making slides.
